Where do you turn when you need specialist palliative care advice for your child or your patient out of hours?

0300 102 1391
6pm to 8am weeknights
and all weekend

Our advice line is available to all families and health and care professionals in West Yorkshire from 6pm to 8am weeknights and all weekend. So families and professionals always have someone they can call on for specialist advice, reassurance or signposting to appropriate services.

If you are not already known to Martin House or Forget Me Not children's hospices, you will be asked for your verbal consent to an information sharing agreement. This is so that health and care professionals can ensure relevant information is confidentially shared as appropriate.
